

JEANNETTE PANG

LEED GA

Staff Architect

jeanette.pang@pfarc.com

FILLAT+ ARCHITECTURE

Jeanette is an architecturally trained designer who has a background in theatre and love for interdisciplinary arts. Jeanette has built a variety of skills that allow her effectively communicate the narrative behind each and every design decision. With a keen eye for beauty and a desire to communicate stories through her designs, Jeanette brings intricacy and zeal into all design-related work at FILLAT+.

BACKGROUND

Juror, Cornell University Department of Architecture

Oct 2018 & Nov 2019

Critiqued 1st Year BArch students' work as a panelist for core studio review

2018 Venice Architecture Biennale

May 2018

Exhibition of research and design work featured as partner event of the U.S. Pavilion in Venice, Italy, in accordance with the theme "Dimensions of Citizenship", exhibition titled, "Ports + Portals: Finding the Citizen Body".

EDUCATION

BArch, 2019

Cornell University

REGISTRATIONS

LEED GA